Alleged Theft.—A man named Peter Dolan complained last night that he had been robbed of $35 at the Bellview Garden Saloon by two well known young men of this city. At the saloon it was claimed that Dolan had been throwing dice and had lost no money, but had gone out and directly came back, saying he had lost $40, afterwards another amount, and finally offered to say nothing of it if the proprietor would give him $10. Of course this was refused. Owing to the different saltements made by Doland we omit the names of the accused.

LINCH—MORRIS.—St. Matthews Church last night was the scene of the most brilliant wedding of the season, the parties interested being Capt. W. Newt. Linch and Miss Isabel G. Morris. The most elaborate preparations had been going on for weeks before and numerous invitations issued to friends of each. The church was well filled at 8 o'clock, the hour named for the ceremony, Capt. John L. Dickey, Sam Hersey, Jay Ratcliffe and Harry W. McLure acting as ushers. Shortly after the bridal party entered the church in the following order: Messra. Franzheim and Miss Ella Stoddard, of Poland, O.; F. M. Oglebay and Miss Sallie Handlan; G. P. Linch and Miss Sages Morris; Dr. R. S. Harvey and Miss Sue Linch, followed by the bride and groom. At the alter Rev. R. R. Swope, the rector, in his surplice, awaited the party, who arranged themselves on either side of him with the contracting parties in the center, the notes of the Lohengrin wedding march pealing through the church meanwhile, with Prof. Herrmann Schockey at the organ. The solemn and beautiful Episcopal marriage service, soon transformed the pair into man and wife. The bride was attired in a beautiful cream sain and tulie, the slate at the City Building at midnight last night.
